KURT HAHN TRUST APPLICATION FORM

Awards for Study in Germany Summer 2023

The Trustees of the Kurt Hahn Trust offer annual awards of £1,000 towards expenses on courses in Germany during the long vacation 2023, designed to improve a student's knowledge of the German language and German culture and institutions. Applicants for these grants must be members of the University of Cambridge: either as undergraduates or postgraduate students. Students of German in the Faculty of Modern and Medieval Languages are not eligible. Applicants of any nationality are eligible to apply, however preference will be given to postgraduate students who have British nationality. Applicants should ask their College Tutor or another appropriate Faculty member for letter of support to certify that the award would be of benefit to their academic work.

This form must be typed and handwritten applications cannot be accepted. Alternative formats of this form can be obtained from kurthahntrust@admin.cam.ac.uk

Once completed, this form and a CV should be returned to kurthahntrust@admin.cam.ac.uk by 17th March 2023. A letter of support from an academic referee must also reach us by this date.
